Just Another Day

Life at Liberty is not always filled with the excitement of Homecoming, but with the ordinary things we do everyday. We battle the crowds in the halls trying to get to our next class or to our lockers; we hang out with friends at lunch, dishing out recent gossip or complaining about the choices for lunch; and we spend our time in school going to class, visiting with friends, and thinking about plans for the upcoming weekend. These are the ordinary days that make up our four years at Liberty High School; these are the days that we will always remember.

Homecoming '93

he week of October 18th was one filled with excitement and fierce class competition. School spirit was evident in the dress up days, lunchtime activities, and the Homecoming Rally; the float competition was especially intense.

Much to the dismay of the Class of '94, the Class of '93 captured first place. The Homecoming Rally was marked by the presentation of the Homecoming Court and the announcement of King and Queen. But the highlight for most was the gut wrenching Homecoming Game Friday night where our Varsity Liberty Lions prevailed over the Monte Vista Mustangs.

1993 Homecoming Court

his year's Homecoming Court included: Joseph Lilley, Jamie Skinner, Frankie Blakely, Melissa

Ashley, Kevin Carpenter, Nicke Rose, Heather Deogracia, Aaron Flores, Ivy Hartman, C.J. Cahayag, Amy Foreman, Dustin Lewis, Craig Matthews, Lynnette Bruno, Brad Bishop, Leticia Padilla, Tiffani Cervenka, Richie Ramirez, Danyel Garcia, and Justin Barrios. The members of the Homecoming Court were announced October 8, 1993, at an outdoor rally. The King and Queen were crowned at the Homecoming Rally October 22. The members of the Homecoming Court were honored not only at Liberty, but in their community as well in the annual Homecoming Parade.

Academic Interests

Liberty's class schedule has changed its style this year. With the new half-hour study session, students had the opportunity to get a head start on their homework.

From the classroom, to the lab area, to the campus, students showed a variety of ways to gain knowledge as they worked their way through four years of academics at Liberty.

The variety of classes at Liberty, including the new Calculus class and the new Tech 2000 Lab classes, gave all students the chance to learn something new as well as have some fun.

Color with Style

A Style All Our Own

If you've ever taken a good look at our campus you will notice we definitely have a style all our own. There is only one word to use when describing the fashion style of the '03-'04 school year: diverse.

The line between what was in and what was out was definitely a fine one this year. Baggy jeans and flannel shirts were common sights. Bell bottoms, palazzo pants and platforms made a return. Everywhere you looked people were demonstrating their own styles: girls wore guys clothes; short hair, buns, and twists were in, and vests made a comeback. With the old fashions coming back and fashions dos and don'ts changing daily, getting dressed in the morning was quite stressful!

Bosom Buddies

When you need a person to lean on or someone to share the good times your friends will always be there. Some friends have been together since kindergarten and others since last week. But no matter how long the friends have been there, each one is different and special. Each makes our years at Liberty fly by. No one can make lunch or math class as funny as a friend. And when the memories of high school start to fade, you can be sure that the friends will never be forgotten.

Spirit Style

ne of the styles that continues year after year with students is Liberty spirit. Spirit can be found around here everyday but it explodes every year during Homecoming Week. The dress up days this year were: Hippy Day, Crazy Day, Western Day and the usual Jersey Day and School Colors Day. For five days Liberty students and staff dress wacky for the cause of promoting school spirit before the big game. And this year it worked, WE WON THE BIG GAME!

Face to Face

hen something makes us happy, we smile. When we are sad, a frown crosses our faces. Friends can tell how we feel just by the expressions we make. For some reason, the photographers of our yearbook always seem to capture faces. These faces show how we feel at every moment. The faces and expressions captured on this page represent the emotions we have all shared this year. Whether it be the moment the tug-of-war was won or the moment we saw what was for lunch, the camera captured what we were thinking.

Everyone at Liberty knows by now that its hard to hide your feelings, those expressions tell all! And if a picture really is worth a thousand words, this book can tell you a lot.

This page closes the opening and takes you into the Senior Class section!

Class of 94

eniors, when you think of the name, it leaves most underclassmen in awe! The Class of 1994 has not only gained respect, but earned it.

This Senior Class has proved many times over their strength, pride, and ability to succeed no matter what the odds.

As Freshmen, new to the Liberty campus, the Class of 1994 was able to achieve to their highest potential, with the guidance of their advisors, Mr. Jerry Black and Ms. Linda Ghilarducci. After taking last place in Homecoming Week activities, the Class of 1994 got together and figured out a way to show their opponents they weren't losers, to do this they brought together what they had most of and that was people. They constructed a float that was a cherry-red, hot-rod with gold flames that left a devil in the dust of its backfire. "Backfire the Devils" was the theme of the float. When halftime came on Friday night, the surprising results were announced and the Class of 1994 had taken the prestigious first place. The officers for their first year were of Danyel Garcia, president; Matt Blasingame, vice-president; Christina Busker, secretary; and Betsy Gonzalez, treasurer. With their leaders, the class united, and once again defeated the odds.

Their sophomore year proved to be great for the Class of 1994 as well. Led by Lynnette Bruno, president; Tiffani Cervenka, vice-president; Christina Busker, secretary; and Tamara Hawkins, treasurer, the Class of 1994 was able to achieve another successful year at Liberty. Homecoming was definitely a success. The Class of 1994 worked hard to finish their float and this hard work paid off as they took first place for a second year. The sophomores' theme for Homecoming, "Liberty Knows Football" "Just Do It" set a positive attitude for the Homecoming Game. Showing their strength, the Class of 1994 took first place in the tug-of-war and class yell and placed high in other events during Homecoming Week also. The highlight for the Class of 1994 was the Sophomore Hop with the theme, "Set the Night to Music." For the first time in a number of years, the Class of 1994 held their own dance. It was their chance to have fun after a lot of hard work throughout the year.

With just under 400 students, the Class of 1994 was once again able to accomplish a great deal as juniors. As Liberty Lions, the Class of 1994 chose their leaders to be Lynnette Bruno, president; Tiffani Cervenka, vice-president; Christina Busker, secretary; and Amy Foreman, treasurer. The Class of 1994 broke the chain of tradition and added creativity with their Junior Class Homecoming skit, "Top Ten Of All Time". The Class of 1994 showed their school spirit and gave their utmost during Homecoming Week. With their third consecutive first place float, "Rock the Broncos", which consisted of a Liberty Lion backer rocking a baby bronco, they continued to strive to be their best. The class showed pride in their hard work by marching behind their float, confidently chanting "Liberty Will Rock You". Nobody came close to the detail and precision of their first place float. With such a large number of Juniors, the Class of 1994 was able to raise money quickly, using candy sales, T-shirts sales, and lunchcart fundraising, to lower costs of the prom. With their hard work behind them, the juniors were able to relax and have a lot of fun at the annual Junior Prom. Again, the prom was held at Humphrey's Restaurant on the Antioch waterfront. With three-fourths of their high school career over, the Junior Class began preparing for their final year, as seniors. Many Juniors challenged themselves with the PSAT test in preparation for their college entrance exams in the future. Without argument, throughout the year, the Class of 1994 showed their strength with the rest the classes, as mighty Lions.

Finally the Class of 1994 entered their senior year! Now the Senior Class had the experience of the past three years to prepare for the regular Homecoming activities. The Class of 1994, took first place in the majority of the lunchtime activities during Homecoming Week; placed first in the class yell competition, tug-of-war, and tricycle race, and had the most spirit points at the end of the week for dressing up during the week to show their school spirit. Naturally, the Class of 1994 was favored to take first place in the competitive float competition. The class once again joined together and worked hard to produce the float "Round Up the Mustangs." The Class of 1994 had their brooms ready, but were unable to come up with the "clean sweep" and round 'em up. Despite the defeat, the Class of 1994 took it in stride and accepted third place. Of course the highlight of Homecoming 1994 was the crowning of the Homecoming king and queen, Richie Ramirez and Tiffani Cervenka. The Class of 1994, then went all out for of course, the "Senior Ball 1994". The Seniors hard work of fund-raising throughout their years at Liberty had paid off and they were able to have a lot of fun at their last high school dance held at the Nikko Hotel in San Francisco.

As the Class of 1994 looks back on their years at Liberty, they see the friendships that have come and gone, the unity their school created, and the things that have been learned from the "high school days". As the Class of 1994 says "goodbye" to Liberty, realizing that their experiences and memories will be kept close in their hearts as they look back, to the "high school days". But most of all the Class of 1994 has realized that their experiences here at Liberty have benefited them for the future.

Class of 95

With almost 500 students, the Class of '95 was able to achieve another successful year at Liberty.

Hard work and long hours on this year's Homecoming float "Stomp the Stangs" really paid off for the Junior Class. The Class of '95 took second place in the float competition beating the Seniors for the first time in three years.

The Class of '95's most successful event this year was the annual Junior Class Homecoming Skit. The skit was entitled "The Ten Worst Things That Can Happen on Homecoming Day". Even though the skit poked fun at the seniors, they loved it and so did everyone else.

The Class of '95 were unified in the effort to raise money this year. With a large number of juniors, the Class of '95 was able to easily raise money using candy sales, T-shirt sales, and lunchcart sales. Our fundraising efforts were the most successful ever, and enabled us to have an awesome prom.

Juniors rallied behind the cause to move the Junior Prom and thanks to our advisors: Alex and Joy Aiello; and our officers: John Dukellis, president; Bryan Mall, vice president; Veronica Agraz, treasurer; and Misty Lincoln, secretary, this move was made possible. For the first ever, the Junior Prom was moved over the hill to Concord. The Class of '95's prom theme "In the Still of the Night", was a great success. Prom night was an event never to be forgotten.

With three-fourths of their high school career over, the juniors began preparing for their final year as seniors. Preparation for the SAT I, SAT II, and the ACT took their toll on the Class of '95, but in the end we were able to relax and enjoy the ride.

Below: the Junior Class is headed by Alex Aiello and Joy Aiello, advisers: Bryan Mall, vice president; Veronica Agraz, treasurer; Misty Lincoln, secretary; John Dukellis, president.

The Class of '95 displayed tons of spirit and lots of style. Above: Kenneth Fresquez has spirit written all over his face!; right: a group of juniors get into the Top Ten Rally and cheer on their classmates and friends.

he Class of 1996 moved on to their sophomore year with much excitement and spirit.

Beginning with Homecoming Week the Sophomore Class had more than enough willing participants. During lunchtime activities this attitude continued and the sophomores were able to place second in spirit points just behind the Senior Class. Their float entitled, "Mash the Mustangs" was a crowd favorite, and reflected the hard work of the class earning them fourth place.

Out of over 500 sophomores, the students elected Erica Ashley, president; Noelle Connors, vice-president; Jennifer Grubb, treasurer and Tania Fluty, secretary. Along with the help of their advisors, Ms. Carla Lorenzetti and Ms. Ilene Foster, the Sophomore Class was able to host a successful Sadie Hawkins Dance to raise money for the Sophomore Hop. They also put together a successful candy and candygram sales which was greatly supported by the Sophomore Class.

With the year coming to an end, the sophomores looked toward their future as upperclassmen at Liberty High.

Class of 97

The Class of '97 was excited and eager to begin their first year as Liberty Lions.

The class of 637 students elected Theresa Schnittker, president; Jill Bacciocco, vice-president; Joann Wells, secretary; and Charley Enos, treasurer.

With the help of their advisors, Mr. John Barneson and Mrs. Debbie Strance, the Freshmen Class worked hard on their first float. Entitled "Drive The Mustangs." The float pictured a mustang car with two lions sitting in the passenger seat. The mustang was driving through the scoreboard, that showed the Lions were beating the mustangs 97 to 19, making the scoreboard say 1997. The float gave the class a first-place finish in their first Homecoming Parade.

Like the upper classes, the freshmen began the tradition of fundraising. Their first candy sale was a huge success as they sold more candy than any other class.

With such a successful first year at Liberty, the Class of '97 is looking forward to their next three years.

Varsity Team Struggles in BVAL eginning the year in a new league was a challenge for the Varsity team. Liberty entered the Bay Valley Athletic League to face high-ranked teams such as DeLaSalle, Pittsburg and Pinole Valley. The climax of the season came when Liberty held on at the end to win the annual Homecoming game against the Monte Vista Mustangs 16-13.

Awards given at the sports banquet included: Most Valuable Player- Dustin Lewis and Joseph Lilley; Best Lineman- Rob Gatrell; Best Linebacker- Larry Enos and Most Inspirational- Frank Blakley.

Another announcement made at the banquet was the retirement of head coach, Jerry Lilley. Although Lilley had just completed his first and only year in the BVAL he was proud of his team and hoped only for the best in the future.

Above: Larry Enos and a teammate put the squeeze on an opponent; below: Michael James dives for a wide pass to make a completion.

Setting Style

With a new league creating a new challenge the Varsity Girls Volleyball Team was ready to show BVAL just what they could do.

Going into the season the team was picked as being the underdogs, which only made the team stronger and gave the girls the extra push they needed. Liberty made it to North Coast, with the help of Julie Marshall and Nicke Rose, Most Valuable Players; Missy Milne, Most Inspirational Player; and Michelle Kelly, Most Improved Player. The team had a really successful season.

Cross Country

his years Cross Country team did a nice job. With Karla Lorenzetti, head coach; and John Renteria, assistant, the team showed character at Ygnacio Valley where Liberty placed among the top six. The girls, although lacking in numbers made an otherwise fine effort. Joe Claderon was named Most Valuable Runner while Chip Glaholt was tabbed as the Most Improved Runner and Scott Smith was the team captain.

The new league was not a barrier, and Joe Calderon said, "It was just another race."

New Girls Tennis Team

his year's first ever girls tennis struggled to get off to a good start. The team was made up of mostly freshmen and they were looking forward to next year in hopes of improving their style. With the new league they found a challenge, but not a complete loss. Justina Morrone was named the Most Valuable Player. The Girls Tennis team was able to play in the finals and won the first match. With hard work and much endurance the girls' tennis team hopes for a better season next year. They were coached by newcomer John Ambrose.

Boys Work as a Team inning second place in their Stonebarger Tournament was one of the highlights of the Varsity boys basketball season.

Joining a new league is always tough as was evidenced by the single victory over Pinole Valley; yet Coach John Radford felt that their overall performance was great.

Playing their last season as Lions were Anthony Gonzlaves, Sanjay Lee, Ronnie Rapp, Aaron Flores, and J.D. Hardcastle. The Varsity sported new warmup jackets to help raise morale and improve their image.

This year the boys' teams played as a group with the Varsity, jv, and frosh sharing the spotlight on game nights either at home or on the road. Coach John Radford knew his boys were in for a tough season but didn't let that stand in their way of improving and working together.

he 93-94 girls' basketball season would not be considered a success by some standards. But this year we added a freshmen girls' team and moved into the powerful BVAL basketball league. There were no easy games like in past years and leagues.

As the new kids on the block the girls fought and clawed their way through 12 tough games. They lost five games by three or fewer points and came away with only two wins.

The important thing is they never quit and they made sure that every opponent earned their win. The girls left the season knowing that more girls had been involved in the program and that they had improved over the course of the year.

nce again the Varsity Wrestlers had an outstanding season. With 19 wins, 1 tie, and no losses, the team easily became the BVAL champs.

Six Lions made NCS, where the team took third overall. Justin Barrios, Leonard Canciamilla, and Johnny Cullen took first, Joaquin Perez and Dustin Lewis took second, and Brian Bushman placed third. All six wrestlers advanced to the state finals where the team placed 10th, Perez took fifth place, and Lewis took sixth place. Billy Pease was given the Coach's Award, Cullen and Bushman were selected most improved, and the MVPs were Lewis, Barrios, Perez, and Canciamilla.

Kicking Goals for Varsity

Everyone expected a rough transition into the new league. But no one expected the Boys Varsity team to destroy Antioch and De La Salle but that is exactly what they did. The team remained in second place for the first part of the season. Much of the team's success was due to the leading scorer, Victor Oregel, and the many experienced seniors on the team as well. The team ended in fourth place with a 5-5-2 record. Their strong showing in the new league was a sign of a good season and brooded well for the future.

espite the girl's soccer team having a tough season with the new league, they handled it well as they came in third in the league overall.

Rebecca Faulkner, a newcomer to Liberty's girls soccer, was the goalie for the Lady Lions. She surprised a lot of her team mates and some of the spectators with her skills.

Stacie Smith, one of the best players, needed no introduction; she was the team leader in goals and assists.

Teresa Fox returned to another season as the sweeper of the team. Kaira Cotter and Amy Foreman were the team captains.

No matter what, the whole team kept their team spirit. Having friends on their team helped.

New Coach Guides Young Team

Headed by a new coach, a new league, and barely enough people to make a team, this year's tennis team had quite a challenging season. Matt Morrone and Chip Glaholt played number 1 and 2 singles positions.

The rest of the ladder was comprised of mostly new players to the game of tennis. The coach had to work with them to teach them the basic fundamentals of the game, but they caught on quickly and in time for the beginning of the season. Having to play tough schools with more experienced players proved to be too much for the young team. The team went only 1 and 8 this year. Now that these players know what to expect, next year promises to be better.

tarting the season with the longest winning streak in recent history, the Varsity boys' baseball team had a good year and ended up with a 16-7 record. Coach Rod Beaver thought the team finished with a good record especially with the fierce competition. They had excellent pitching and good defense; a defense that kept them in the win column.

Both Joseph Lilley and Larry Enos had fine years and made first team BVAL. Matt Fregi made second team while Matt Griggs, Mike Sosine, Jeff Jenlink and Matt Riley were tabbed honorable mention.

Varsity Softball

Showing determination and enthusiasm the Lady Lions Varsity Softball team ended up in a three way tie for second place in the BVAL with Pinole Valley and Pittsburg. They defeated Antioch in a rain delayed game that was called in the bottom of the fifth because of a massive thunderstorm; Antioch was the eventual champions. They were paced by the bat of Julie Marshall and the pitching of Courtney Barajas. They were coached by Rich Barrios.

As the season came to a close the Lady Lions were rewarded by their diligent effort. They sent Julie Marshall, Danyel Garcia and Theresa Schmittker to the all league first team. Those chosen for the second team were Jamie Moore and Courtney Barajas. Teresa Fox and Stacey Smith received honorable mentions.

arning a trip to the Meet of Champions is the goal of all participants on the girls' track team when season starts in February. Lisa Bell accomplished that goal in more than one event.

Entering a new league, the girls were not expected to do well against the likes of Pittsburg and Candolet especially. As in other sports, the girls had a few surprises for their opponents and did well. They won more meets than had been projected and did themselves proud.

Having every meet an away meet this year meant that the teams were always traveling. Both teams surprised their opponents with well earned and hard-fought victories as they were coached by Erica Pantle and Julie Dooley. The boys were paced by Jacob and Josh Wendler, new to both Liberty and our swim team.

all of 1993 marked the beginning of another show-stopping play produced by the members of Playmakers.

The Matchmaker, a comedy written by Thornton Wilder, was among Liberty students. Starring Nicole Wagner and David Mata, the story wonderfully reflected the eighteenth century in which the play was set. We are looking forward to seeing more plays of this nature in the future.

Joseph Amazes Audience

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, a musical written by Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber astounded the audience in the spring of 1994. Directed by Mrs. Helen Dixon the show starred Freshman Kyle Roberts as Joseph. Ivy Hartman and Cyrina White also played a vital role. This play was new for Liberty because of the fact that the story was sung, not acted out. Furthermore, it employed over fifty children from Liberty's feeder schools and also many of Liberty's staff. An excellent performance was given by Mr. Kevin Cline whose Elvis Impression is still leaving audiences amazed.

From then on it was one project after another. Homecoming and related festivities were a success as were two blood drives, a canned food drive, and a Help the Homeless drive.

A second Mr. GQ contest was organized as well as a Spring Spirit Week, and several BBQs. With new adviser, Mr. Abe Doctolero, the leaders of Liberty worked hard to make it a great year for the entire student body. Kevin was assisted by Danyel Garcia, Tiffani Cervenka, and Leah Smith.

Mr. GQ Contest

nce again the PAC was packed for the second annual Mr. GQ Contest held on April 15. Family, friends, and fans of the 16 young men enjoyed the antics of their favored candidates in this fun-filled evening.

The contestants were Brad Bishop, C.J. Cahayag, Kevin Carpenter, Bryan Mall, Dustin Lewis, Michael James, Robbie Cecchini, Jess Walton, Justin Fugel, Aaron Flores, Abel Ordaz, Jeremy Corbin, Matt Morrone, Craig Matthews, John Dukellis, and Gary Woodworth who vied in the following competitions: Formal Wear, Interview, Swimsuit, and Talent for the title of Mr. GQ 1994.

The event, which raised money for student emergencies (SERF), was entertaining for both the participants and especially the audience. Runnerups were Brad Bishop and Abel Ordaz while C.J. Cahayag was tabbed as Mr. GQ.

This year's event played to a SRO crowd and raised over $2000 for SERF. The contest, which just started last spring, has become a huge crowd favorite. Two girls from each class and two female staff members were judges for the event which ran longer that last year yet was still well received.

Grant Wins Sousa Award

With a new year a new style came for the Liberty Band. For the first year ever marching band was extracurricular. Led by Adrian Valenzuela, drum major, the band took on the challenge of field show competition. Spirits remained high throughout the season.

The Symphonic Band also experienced major changes. Ninth graders were placed in a separate concert band. The year came to an end at the Spring Concert. The John Philip Sousa Award was presented to senior bandsman Greg Grant. The other three nominees were John Esquivel, Tamara Hawkins and Valerie Volk.

Our 65th Lion Yearbook has a style all its own. With over 2,000 students attending Liberty, it was time for a bigger book and the staff went to a 9x12 size. The changes in this book, such as the use of spot color for backgrounds in the opening section, different senior layouts, bigger pictures, and more open spreads, reflect a different style chosen by this year's staff.

The cover represents another distinctive one styled just for Liberty by the yearbook staff.

Creating Liberty Style

In September of 1993 I began my year as Editor in Chief of the Lion Yearbook. Little did I know then what lay ahead for me. The work involved in putting together yearbook is unbelievable. Thanks to a small but dedicated staff, the 65th Liberty yearbook was completed. When you look through the pages of this book, I hope that you are reminded of your days at Liberty. The photos and words in this book capture memories and moments not to be forgotten. Liberty Style is as unique as those who have walked the Liberty halls. Months of hard work have been spent creating a book of unforgettable times, ordinary days, and special people. So each time you glance through these pages may you remember your high school days in 1994.

'Here and Now' Theme

Changing the school cafeteria colors into teal, black, and silver, took the sophomores and their parents most of the day, Saturday, April 30, to accomplish. Yet when the doors opened that evening for the Sophomore Hop, the place was ready to greet the candidates for Princess and Prince: Courtney Barajas, Deanna Rodriguez, Erika Ashley, Adrienne Aguilar, Tania Fluty, Zack Long, Aaron Barton, Jose Quesada, Jose Rodriguez, and Daniel Aguayo. Tania Fluty and Jose Rodriguez were announced as the sophomores' choice.

Party favors were a key chain and memory book, music was by Larry Live, and food included cookies, pizza, fruit, vegetables, and punch.

For the first time the Junior Prom has been held in the Concord area. The event took place Friday, April 22, 1994, in the Concord Centre. The evening had a fun and exciting atmosphere which was accentuated by the black and silver ballroom. The theme "In the Still of the Night" was definitely appropriate for the juniors and their dates.

ay 14, 1994, marked the date of the last high school dance for the Class of 1994. The Senior Ball was held at the Hotel Nikko in San Francisco. The theme "Make It Last Forever" captured the mood of the night as the seniors enjoyed the ball together.

The elegant Hotel Nikko was decorated in cardinal and gold, the colors chosen by the class. Flowers and balloons filled the ballroom where the class danced and reminisced together.

As their last formal came quickly to an end, the Seniors danced to their theme song. The memories of that night will surely last forever; the next dance would have to wait until the Class of '94 met for their first reunion.

Ferguson, Cotter Lead Class of '94

For the Class of 1994, June 10, 1994, marked the end of their high school years. With the temperature hitting 100+, the graduation ceremonies were once again held on Ohmstede Field in the presence of family, friends, and community members.

The Senior Class was led to their seats by class advisors Mr. Jerry Black and Ms. Linda Ghilarducci who were followed by co-valedictorians Kaira Cotter and Brendan Ferguson as well as their three saluatorians: Lura Milner, Leah Smith, and Tony Wilson.

The ceremony was marked by heart-felt speeches delivered by the leaders of the class including the valedictorians and saluatorians. Senior Class president, Lynnette Bruno presented a display case for the PAC as the class gift to next year's student body president, Sarah Schnittker. Melissa Ashley was the featured student graduation speaker while Kevin Carpenter, present student body president, made closing remarks for the class.

Malinda Trimble, the Jenny Lind Award winner, sank the class song, "You've Got a Friend".

For the first time graduates with a 3.75+ GPA wore gold medallions while 3.25+ grads displayed silver ones.

Staff

Keeping up with the growth of the student body and other factors, the certificated staff saw a huge influx of new faces for the '93-'94 school year.

Left: Greg Wright and Jeanne Glenn share a lighter moment in the office; below: Liberty Union High School District Board of Trustees — Ron Enos, Bob Taylor, clerk; Joanne Byer, Holly Hartman, president; and Ray Valverde. Ray was serving his first term on the board while both Ron and Joanne were reelected to the board in last fall's balloting. The Board meets the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month at 20 Oak Street in Brentwood.

Far left: Bob Smith, band director, sits patiently with members of the marching band as they wait to play at an outdoor rally on Ohmstede Field. Because of the size of the student enrollment, most rallies were held in the football bleachers.

To Leticia,
We are proud of the way you're grown-up. To be your own person takes courage and pride, to be what you want to be takes dreams and determination.

Love you,
Mom, Dad, Myda,
and Elias

Long after the Class of '94 graduates, I want to be remembered as the tall, skinny blonde cheerleader that made everyone laugh and made my four years an academic and memorable time.

Heather Deogracia

Congratulations To my daughter Christina

You have worked very hard for this day. I'm so very proud of you! I remember crying when you started nursery school and I'll cry again as you graduate with the class of 1994.

I love you, Tina
Forever, Mom

To My Sunshine,
As a little girl it wasn't enough for you to simply know what something was, you always wanted to know why!!! I realize now that was because you don't see things as much for what they are as for what they can be. You truly are our sunshine and the world is a brighter place because of your efforts. We are proud of you, of your accomplishments and of the beautiful woman you have become.

We Love You!!
Your family

Amy,
You're as close to a perfect daughter as anyone could be. We're thankful to God for allowing us to be your parents.
May your future be as happy as your past.

Love Always,
Dad & Mom

Nicole, Don't ever forget about Barbies, Footloose, those bathrobes at the cabin, our mayonaise

commercial, or that dog that chased you down.
We won't forget
Love, Ann & Cathy

*Thanks for the memories,
Love, Jamie Skinner*

*I can do everything through Him who gives me strength.

Congatulations,
Love Mom*

Jennie, God's special gift of beauty and Happiness.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, and Tina*

Trashell,

Remember the pink suitcase I told you about? It was a dream I had when I was expecting you at 6 months, that if I'd go and buy a pink suitcase and blanket, I'd have a little baby girl! I knew then you'd be a beautiful baby and grow up to be a wonderful young lady. One of a parents greatest accomplishments in life is when their precious daughter graduates from high school, as you are now doing. We are proud of you, continue to succeed in everything you do!

Congratulations, We Love You!

Machella, David, Harold, Ty Grandmother (Dear), D.J. (Dog) & Tiego (Bird)

When I was a little girl, playing with my dolls, I had wonderful day dreams of how my little girl would be. I grew up and had you "Jana" am so proud of you! Thanks for making all my dreams come true!

Love Always Mom

Different Moods Close the Year

Fickle, Frantic Faces

From campus candids, to a semi-formal dance, to a chorus line and cheerleading, Liberty students show their varied faces.

Students participate in lab experiments, school dances, and music activities as well as showing their school spirit on "Hippy Day".

From left to right: two young women sitting together. These pictures capture the moment.

Smiles Close Yearbook Pages

The candid reflections on these final two pages of the closing show the Lion style of friendship that pervades the Liberty campus; see ya next year!

English and Video Productions; John Dodson, Social Studies; Abe Doctolero, Dean and Leadership; Glen Groseclose, Math; Aline Lee, Social Studies and PE; Deborah Lomando, Math and Restructuring; Janet O'Laughlin, Special Education; Julie Phillips, Social Studies and Social Studies Primary Language; Dave Santos, Math; and Jennifer Weinert, Math.

Joining the administrative team as deans were Bryce Custodio and Abe Doctolero and as an assistant principal, Martha Martin.

Heading the two units on campus were John Renteria, president of LEA and Sharon Ramirez, president of CSEA.

Passing a bond election in April occupied the energy and time of administration, parents, teachers, and board members. With the successful vote, the dreams of a new high school in Oakley would be realized.

In May, the school community was surprised with the announced resignation of Dr. Phil White who was leaving education to go to work in the private sector.

Late in the school, the news of the death of both Art Gonzales and Frank Stonebarger saddened the entire area.

Continuing their efforts towards restructuring and Second to None, the Health Academy was put on line for the following year and more teachers moved into the restructuring mode.

With only eight weeks for summer vacation, students and staff were scheduled to begin year-round school on August 8.

In Memory of. . .

Friend Carlos

When he came to little town, and everybody knew him, he was so nice, human and a little bit funny too.

He was always a good friend, he always helped everybody and when he had a problem he resolved it with a lot of precaution.

But day by day he waits, for a new day to live and now everybody asks how he died and why?

Farewell Class of 1994

Never Before Like '94. The Class of 1994 truly can never be duplicated. The pictures in this book represent a year dominated by the Senior class. From Homecoming dances to basketball games, the Seniors made their presence known. They created their own Liberty Style. After four years at Liberty Union High School, the Class of 1994 had made their mark. For the classes left behind, the Style of '94 has been captured in these pages.
